SEVEN OTHER CHILDREN

Written by Richard Stirling as a direct response to Seven Jewish Children by Caryl Churchill, which caused such controversy at the Royal Court in February, this riveting dissection of the Palestinian narrative ends with the present warfare

Ten performances only at the New End Theatre, after the One Act Play Festival each night

Admission to the theatre after 9.45pm

There will be a collection after Seven Other Children for OneVoice, the international mainstream grassroots movement, which puts pressure on politicians of both sides to conclude a two-state solution guaranteeing an end to occupation and violence directed by Simone Vause

featuring a cast of nine international actors
